PREFACE

When starting to compile this study of the Lattimore family, I became interested in knowing more of each individual. Finding what they did, why they moved, where they went, what happened to them, and etc. But as I got further into it, I found there was such a mulitude of descendents in each line, that perhaps, in this first study, the primary importance would be to bring each line down to the present.

I am sure there is a wealth of stories, traditions, reminiscenses and legends in each family. With your help, perhaps we can bring out a volume two, consisting of the whys and wherefores.

If you will send me the stories of your particular branch of the family, I will put them together and perhaps we can flesh out the bones of this book.

The women of the Lattimore family, with exceptions, have not been carried past their marriages. Research of all the name changes would be a horrendous chore. Additional information has been left up to the interested families.

The material for this study has come from many, many family members. So many have contributed, it is impossible to thank them individually, but without their participation, this could have never been completed. A special thanks must go to D. P. Lattimore of California, who did a great deal of the research and collating, then graciously shared it.

A great many hours have been spent in archives researching micro-film of legal transactions since Colonial days.

Obscure and obsolete books have been located and referred to, histories, magazines, periodicals, as well as unpublished material have been throughly searched. Every effort has been expended to cover all family members and to be as correct as possible, any ommissions or errors are not intended.

INTRODUCTION

The Lattimores were of Scotch-Irish descent and like the Scotch-Irish, were an independent, high principled, narrow, and strong people, tenacious of their own right and religion. These people were determined to have and to hold.

While the influential from England and the Colonies were taking up land grants of many thousands of acres and leasing small acreages to the emigrants; the Scotch-Irish were unwilling to live on any but land of inheritance. They are the ones that took up small holdings on the frontier, in the back country; encouraged as a bumper between the Indians and the Colonist.

Where they went, they took up land and started their own churches.

Around 1732, the first large group of Scotch-Irish settlers migrated in Virginia from Pennsylvania along the Great Wagon Road. By the year 1736, Virginia was flooded with Scotch-Irish settlers.

In Prince William County, Virginia, the Lattimores settled near an old Indian Trail leading south to the Carolinas. This trail was used as a major road by the settlers, and became known as "The Old Carolina Trail" It is likely this is the trail the Lattimores used on their trek south; always after more and better land.

They settled in the wilderness of the western Carolinas until after the Revolutionary War. Around the beginning of the nineteenth century, when more land was opening up, most of the Lattimores pushed on west. Although one branch of the family stayed in North Carolina, others went to Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana, always taking up land and starting churches.

This then, is a study of the descendants of one Lattimore couple, John and Isabel Frazier Lattimore, and their interpretation of the adage, "Go forth and mutiply."

EXPLANATION OF NUMBERING SYSTEM.

Each individual has been given a number in order of their birth. 1, 2, 3, and etc. The digit assigned to an individual is always the last digit in the number.

The patriarch is "1" and his children are numbered 1-1, 1-2, 1-3, 1-4, and etc. Third generation persons carry their digit numbers, such as 1-2-3. This would be interpreted to mean the third child of the second child of the patriarch.

The immigrant, John Lattimore has been given the number "1". John, Jr. (wife, Isabel Frazier) will be listed as "1-1".

In as much as this study concerns itself with only the descendants of John, Jr. (1-1), numbers have not been allocated to the girls, Winney, Betty, Sarah, Mary, or Charity.

THE LATTIMORE FAMILY IN AMERICA

According to family legend, brothers Samuel, Daniel, and John Lattimore arrived in Philadelphia, Pa. from Ireland in 1690.

In a letter written about 1854 by Samuel Lattimore, who was born in Rutherford County, N.C. in 1790; the son of Daniel Lattimore and his wife, Ann Stockton, to his step-son, William Houston; he states the following:

" My grandfather, John Lattimore was brought when a youth from Ireland and landed at Philadelphia, then seperated from his brothers--I know not how many-- and went himself to Virginia. Whether he married in Pennsylvania or Virginia, I do not know. Grandmother's name was Isabel Frazier. She had black hair and black eyes. Grandfather had red hair and blue eyes.

My father was the youngest of the family. His mother died first, his father soon afterward, while he was quite young. Father had two brothers, John and Francis, both with red hair and blue eyes. They married Stockton sisters, Jemima and Rachel.

Uncle John had three children, Daniel, John, and Rachel. All with red hair and blue eyes. Rachel married John Hoiles. They and cousin's Johns are somewhere in North Carolina. Uncle Franks are in Kentucky, all daughters, five in number.

Two of them married Smiths, one Baily and one Douglas.

Father had three sisters. Margaret with red hair and blue eyes and married Newberry Stockton and went to Kentucky. Aunt Sarah had black hair and black eyes and married Robert Black and went to Kentucky. The other sister Lettie died young.

Think they landed in Philadelphia in 1690."

This letter was in the possession of Samuel's granddaughter, Alida Lattimore, Putnamville, N.Y., and the information sent by her to Mrs. E.B. Lattimore, Shelby N.C., 3 November 1936.

Assuming Samuel, Daniel and John[1] arrived in Philadelphia when John was a youth in 1690, the John Lattimore mentioned in the above letter would have been too old to marry Isabel Frazier, fathered these six children, and to have died young.

It is more likely the John mentioned above was the son of the immigrant, John Lattimore.

Nothing more is knowm of Samuel, but there was a John and a Daniel listed in the Chester County, Pa. tax list of 1730.[2] There are no other known records of Daniel after this period.

The names, Samuel, Daniel, John, and Francis have occured in each generation of the family, and there are a number of each of them today.

THE IMMIGRANT JOHN LATTIMORE

The immigrant, John Lattimore apparently married Sarah, circa 1720-1724, probably in Pa.[3] Between the years 1730 and 1734, John and Sarah apparently migrated to Virginia. The record shows John Lattimore purchased 200 acres of land in Prince William County, Va. from Thomas Furr in 1734, for the sum of 200 pounds lawful money of Great Britian.[4]

In 1740, John Lattimore, Sr. sold 50 acres of the beforementioned land to his son, John, Jr.[5]

In 1749, John Lattimore of Stafford County, Va. purchased 274 acres of land in Prince William County from Richard Young of Orange County, Va. and Henry Smith of Stafford County. (There are no other records of this land, as most of the Colonial Records of Prince William and Stafford Counties have been destroyed)[6]

John Lattimore, Sr. died June-July 1761, and although there are no will books available for this period in Prince William County, the Court Order Books for 27 July and 25 August 1761, show the Last Will and Testament of John Lattimore was presented in court by Sarah Lattimore, the executrix. The will was contested by the children of the deceased, Winny Cummings (Cummins), Betty Millard, Sarah Fernsley, Mary Pritchett, and Charyly Kite (Charity Knight). No mention of son John was made among the contestants of the will.[7]

On 31 March 1744, Mary Lattimore and Lewis Pritchett were married in Overwhorton Parish in Stafford County, Va., and on 23 October 1750, Charity Lattimore and John Knight were married at the same place.[8] Marriage records of the other children have not been found.

From the above records, it has been established that the known children of John and Sarah Lattimore were:

Winney Lattimore	married	Moses Cummins[9]
Betty Lattimore		Millard
Sarah Lattimore		Fernsley
Mary Lattimore	31 Mar. 1744	Lewis Pritchett
Charity Lattimore	23 Oct. 1750	John Knight
John Lattimore		Isabel Frazier

The marriage of John and Isabel is referred to in the letter written by their grandson, Samuel.

1-1 JOHN LATTIMORE AND ISABEL FRAZIER

No definite relationship has been established between Isabel Frazier and the other Fraziers in Prince William County, but one seems likely.

In 1702, John Frazier was minister of Overwhorton Parish in Prince William County.[10] Overwhorton Parish included Stafford County and all of Prince William, and "the bounds of the parish are not known".[11]

A reference is made to an Andrew Frazier in the Prince William Court Order Book dated 1 December 1759.

Births registered in Overwhorton Parish, 8 November 1754, William Frazer, son of Mary, was born at Mary Suddeths. On 12 June 1756, Mary Frazer, daughter of Isabella was born.[12]

John Lattimore and Isabel Frazier were married probably in Virginia circa 1740-1744. Their children:[13]

1-1-1	Francis Lattimore(ca 1744-1817)	Rachel Stockton
1-1-2	John Lattimore (1745-1821)	Jemima Stockton
1-1-3	Margaret Lattimore	Newberry Stockton
1-1-4	Sarah Lattimore	Robert Black
1-1-5	Lettie Lattimore	Unmarried
1-1-6	Daniel Lattimore (ca 1750-1831)	Ann Stockton

ALBEMARLE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

When and where John and his wife Isabel Frazier died is not known.

Events show their children migrated south to Albemarle Co., Va., probably because of more and cheaper land. The following events also point out this was the likely place the Lattimore children met and married their spouses.

On 12 March 1739, Davis Stockton received 400 acres of land by patent, which was located on both sides of Joy Creek, a branch of Rivanna, located in Goochland Co., Va. This part of Goochland Co. later became Albemarle Co.[14]

On 17 November 1741, Davis Stockton sold the above land to Michael Wood for 30 pounds and on 6 July 1741, Davis was granted a tract of 400 acres in Goochland Co., on both sides of Mechum River.[15]

In 1746-47, Rev. Samuel Black (1709-1770) of the Donegal, Lancaster Co., Pa. Presbytery, moved to Albemarle Co., Va., and was pastor of Rockfish and Mountain Plain Churches. He had four sons, one of whom may have been Robert Black who married Sarah.[16]

15 August 1764, Newberry Stockton was granted 100 acres on Meriweathers Branch of Pounding Creek in Albemarle Co.[17]

5 June 1765, Samuel Stockton was granted 150 acres on branch of the South Fork of Mechum River in Albemarle.[18]

19 Sept. 1765, John Lattimore was granted 200 acres on Meriweathers Branch of Pounding Creek in Albemarle Co.[19]

The above land grants show the Lattimores were in the proximity of the Stocktons in Albemarle Co.

Davis Stockton was the grandfather of the four Stockton children that married the Lattimore children. Samuel Stockton, son of Davis, was the father of Ann Stockton, who married Daniel. Rachel, Jemima, and Newberry, were the children of Thomas Stockton, son of Davis.[20]

Davis Stockton and his wife Sarah are said to have sailed from Northern Ireland, arriving in Penn. in 1680.

The children of Davis and Sarah Stockton were:[21]

Thomas Stockton	married	Rachel Arnold
Samuel Stockton		Prudence Torbett

William Stockton
Richard Stockton
Hannah Stockton
Elizabeth Stockton
Ann Stockton
Jean
Agnes
Adam Godylouch
William Whitesides
Dr. Francis Welchel.

1-1-1 FRANCIS LATTIMORE

Francis presumed to be the eldest child of John and Isabel Frazier Lattimore, is believed to have been born in Va. circa 1744.

He met and married Rachel Stockton, daughter of Thomas and Rachel Arnold Stockton, probably in Albemarle Co., Va.

It appears he, his brothers, John and Daniel, the Blacks, and some of the Stocktons migrated to the western border area of North and South Carolina, prior to the Revolutionary War, where Francis settled in District 96 (Union County), South Carolina.

Francis served as a Lieutenant during the Revolutionary War.[1] He was paid 157 pounds and 10 shillings for militia duty before and since the fall of Charleston, in Brandon's Regiment, Andersons Return.[2]

He was issued a voucher for 5 pounds and 10 shillings for his part of a pay bill in Col. Brandon's Regiment in 1779, issued June 1785.[3]

Lt. Francis Lattimore gave a receipt to Richard Griffon on 20 June 1782 for forage for 7 horses and supper for 7 men.[4]

On 30 August 1786, Francis purchased 200 acres of land 'whereon the said Francis Lattimore now lives,' in District 96, S.C. from John Steen for the sum of 5 pounds, bordering lands sold by John Steen to Davis Stockton.[5]

3 December 1787, Francis was granted 427 acres situated in District 96, on both sides of Thickety Creek, a branch of Broad River; bounded on the southwest by John Thompson's land, on the east by Stockton land and all other sides, vacant lands.[6]

Around 1788-89, it appears Francis moved to Rutherford County, N.C., where he is listed in the 1790 U.S. population census, along with his brothers and several Stockton families.

In 1791, he sold his property in District 96 to Charles Clinton for the sum of 400 pounds.[7]

Between 1791 and 1798, Francis, his wife and family, the Newberry Stockton family and the Robert Black family migrated to Kentucky, where they settled in Barren County.[8] Francis was granted 200 acres of land on Beaver Creek in 1798.[9]

Many references exist in the Barren County Courthouse relative to transactions involving Francis, among them, Deed Book F - page 76 - Francis gave 2 acres of land on Beaver Creek to Edward Young, 11 April 1817, for the benefit of a Presbyterian Church.

It is believed that Francis died around 1817-23, as his will was dated 1817 and entered for probate in September Court 1824. Evidently his wife, Rachel preceded him in death, as she was not mentioned in his will.[10]

His will was rather extensive, as he named all of his children and grandchildren, and gave most of them something of value. He was most explicit in naming the children; however in spite of his detail the will was the cause of much litigation.

Children of Francis and Rachel were:

1-1-1-1	Rachel		William Smith (1)
		22 June 1811	James Wood (2)
1-1-1-2	Abby		John Smith
1-1-1-3	Jemima	8 June 1801	William Douglass
1-1-1-4	Peggy	1800-1801	James Renick
1-1-1-5	Polly	24 Feb. 1807	John Bales

The Wood, Renick, Douglass, and Bales marriages were performed by the Rev. John Howe of Beaver Creek Presbyterian Church, Barren Co., Kentucky.

1-1-1-1 Rachel Lattimore, daughter of Francis and Rachel was born in District 96, S.C. She was married first to William Smith, who died 8 Sept. 1801. Reference was made to the children in William's will and the mother's condition was mentioned; however the unborn child was twins.

1-1-1-1-1 Mary Jane (Polly) Smith

1-1-1-1-2 Mysenia (or Mesina) Smith married William Pursley.

1-1-1-1-3 Jenny Smith

1-1-1-1-4 William Smith

On 22 June 1811, Rachel married James Wood.[11] James was born in Albemarle County, Va. and his family were leaders in the Albemarle Presbyterian Church.

1-1-1-1-5 Rachel Wood

1-1-1-1-6 James Wood born 1820

1-1-1-2 Abby Lattimore born District 96, S.C. married John Smith.

1-1-1-2-1 William Lattimore Smith married Lucinda M. Duncan, 24 Nov. 1824.[12]

1-1-1-2-2 Francis Lattimore Smith married Mirandy Foster, 8 Oct. 1821.[13]

1-1-1-3 Jemima Lattimore born District 96, S.C. married William Douglas(s) 8 June 1801.[14]
1-1-1-3-1 Louise Douglas
1-1-1-3-2 Polly Douglas
1-1-1-3-3 Tabitha Douglas
1-1-1-3-4 Rachel Douglas
1-1-1-3-5 George Douglas

1-1-1-4 Peggy Lattimore, born District 96, S.C. married 1800-01[15] James Renick, born 1776 Hampshire County, Va. (Now W. Va.)
1-1-1-4-1 Rachel Renick
1-1-1-4-2 Polly Renick
1-1-1-4-3 Abby Renick
1-1-1-4-4 William Renick married Elizabeth Simms.[16]
1-1-1-4-5 Cyrus Renick
1-1-1-4-6 Lucy Renick
1-1-1-4-7 Samuel Renick married Sarah Shirley.[17]

1-1-1-5 Polly Lattimore born District 96, S.C. married John Bales, 24 Feb. 1807.[18]

All of the grandchildren of Francis and Rachel were born in Barren County, Kentucky.

Due to the fact that all of Francis' children were daughters, and the immense amount of work documenting them with all the name changes, the line of Francis has not been followed through in this study of the Lattimore family.

1-1-2 JOHN LATTIMORE

John Lattimore believed to be the second son of John and Isabel, was born in Virginia in 1745, and died 12 March 1821 in Cleveland County, North Carolina.[1] He was married to Jemima Stockton, daughter of Thomas and Rachel Stockton.

The earliest known record of John was a land grant issued to him on 19 September 1765 in Albemarle Co., Va.[2] It is probable that is where he and Jemima were married.

Between 1765 and 1770, John with a group of several families migrated to the border area of North and South Carolina. On 26 October 1773, he acquired 250 acres of land in Camden District, South Carolina; on both sides of Clark's Fork of Bullocks Creek.[3]

This land probably ajoined his brother Daniel's land in North Carolina. Daniel was issued a warrant for 150 acres on Clark's Fork of Bullocks Creek in Tryon County, N.C. in 1770.

John enlisted in the militia on 27 November 1783 during the Revolutionary War and was witnessed by M. Henry and recorded in Camden District (York Co.), South Carolina. He served in the Brier Creek Expedition in Georgia.[4] It is said he was shot in the leg by a British bullet and carried the bullet to his grave.

On 8 October 1783, John sold his land in South Carolina and moved to Rutherford County, North Carolina. On 13 October 1785 he purchased from Benjamin Shaw, land on both sides of Duncan Creek; including, "the said Lattimore improvements."[5]

In 1786 he purchased 200 acres from Richard Singleton on South Creek of Little Broad River.[6] In 1787 he purchased 250 acres on Hinton Creek,[7] in what is now known as Cleveland County, and surrounds the present location of the old Lattimore cemetery.

There are many references to land transactions in the deed books in Rutherford Co. On 25 June 1791, John and Jemima gave 2½ acres for the establishment of a Methodist Church.[8]

After the death of John in 1821, his widow, Jemima together with two of their children, John and Rachel and their families, moved to McMinn County, Tennessee.

Jemima died in Tennessee circa 1823. Her will is dated 6 March 1823.[9]

Children of John and Jemima were:

1-1-2-1	John Lattimore		Susanna Carpenter
1-1-2-2	Daniel Lattimore	3 Nov. 1796	Sarah Carpenter
1-1-2-3	Rachel Lattimore	9 Jan. 1798	John Hoyle.

1-1-2-1 JOHN LATTIMORE

John Lattimore, known as red-headed John, was born in 1774 in Camden District, South Carolina, and died 18 June 1833 in McMinn County Tenn. He was married in Rutherford Co., N.C. to Susanna Carpenter, born 1776 in North Carolina, and died 8 July 1852 in McMinn Co., Tenn. Susanna was the sister of Sarah Carpenter who was married to John's brother Daniel. Susanna and Sarah were the daughters of Samuel Carpenter and Catherine Eaker. Samuel Carpenter was born circa 1748 and is believed to have migrated to North Carolina from New Jersey around 1774.

After the death of John's father in 1821, John, Susanna and family, his mother, Jemima, and Rachel and John Hoyle migrated to McMinn Co., Tenn.

Both John and Susanna were buried in McMinn County, but about the year 1900, their remains were moved to the Corntassel Cemetery in Monroe County, Tenn.

1-1-2-1-1 Francis Lattimore, born 15 June 1800 in Rutherford Co., N.C., married first Catherine Lattimore, born 1800, died 1844, daughter of Daniel and Sarah Carpenter Lattimore. Francis married second, Sophia Elam.

Francis migrated to Tennessee with his parents, but returned to North Carolina and married his (double) cousin, Catherine. After Catherine's death, he remarried and remained in North Carolina.

On 12 July 1851, Francis gave 4½ acres of land in Lawndale, N.C. to the New Bethel Church.[10] He and Sophia were active in the church, as are many of their descendents today.

Nancy Starr was a Cherokee Indian. When the United States Government decided to remove the Indians residing in Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, and North Carolina, to west of the Mississippi; in the treaty of 1832, and open their land to white settlers, the Samuel Lattimore family had to move west with others of the Cherokee tribe.

Samuel Lattimore of Hiwassee, Tenn. received commutation allowance for transportation west on 28 Dec. 1833; for himself, wife Nancy, 2 males under 10 years of age, 1 female under 10, 1 male slave and 2 female slaves.

The Samuel Lattimore family arrived in Oklahoma on 16 May 1834. Arriving in the family were two males under ten years of age, one male between the ages of twenty and fifty, one female under ten, and one female between twenty five and fifty, arriving with them were one male slave and one female slave. The record shows five people died enroute. One could have have been a female slave. Who the other four was is unknown.

A total of twenty persons of the Ezekiel Starr family arrived the same date, with one slave dying on 10 May 1834.[13] They all settled in the Skin Bayou District; which became Sequoyah District Indian Territory in 1851.

On Christmas night 1940, Commander Thomas Calloway Latimore,a career naval officer left Newport R.I. to fly to the West Coast and to Pearl Harbor, Oahu, for duty with the Pacific Fleet. He was Captain of the destroyer tender, Dobbins.

Tall athletic and handsome, he had captained his football team in high school, was graduated from Annapolis in the class of 1914 and served as a combat officer in the Mediterranean during WWI.

On July 1941, Comdr. Latimore had lunch with friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Sumner, near Honolulu.

After lunch, he left the Sumners and went for a walk in the hills behind the town of Aica, directly overlooking Pearl Harbor. He was never seen again.

Around dusk of the day he vanished, he telephoned his ship and asked that a pair of binoculars be sent out to him. When the glasses were brought to the point described by him, he was gone.

After his disappearance, army, as well as navy search parties, up to 200 men, scoured the entire area on foot, by air, and on horseback. Navy divers searched a reservior in the wild ravine marked hills. But neither then nor in a subsequent official navy investigation was any trace of him found.

It was a few months before the attack on Pearl Harbor and the speculation was he had stumbled onto some sort of secret Japanese installation or equipment, after which he was seized and done away with. From later released interceptions of coded messages and from other sources, it was clear that many Japanese agents had been active in the Islands.[15]

There has been much confusion regarding the marriages of John Lattimore and Isabella Carson.
The John Lattimore that migrated to Indiana, also married a girl named, Isabella Carson. This marriage occured circa 1800, and this John was recorded in the 1810 Rutherford Co., N.C. census and the 1820 Jennings Co., Ind. census.
It is likely that the two Isabellas were related.
It has been confirmed, some of the Carson family migrated to Indiana with the Lattimores; while other Carsons remained in N.C.

1-1-6 Daniel Lattimore was the youngest child of John Lattimore and Isabel Frazier.[1] He appears to have been born in Virginia circa 1750. He was married to Ann Stockton, daughter of Samuel Stockton and Prudence Torbett Stockton.[2]

The earliest record thus far located relative to Daniel, places him in Tryon County, North Carolina, in 1770.[3]

Account number AA-4445 of the audited accounts of the State of South Carolina mentions John Latemore was paid for 61 days duty in the Militia and for a horse. Daniel Latimore certified the horse to be worth 60 pounds, in his deposition given to Mr. Whitehead, Esq. of North Carolina.[4]

The John Latemore referred to was the brother of Daniel and it is known that John lived in Camden District of South Carolina and their brother, Francis, lived in District 96, South Carolina; prior to the Revolutionary War, and it would appear that Daniel also lived in South Carolina if he knew and was able to certify John's horse to be worth 60 pounds. But at that time the North and South Carolina boundery had not been extended westward, and there were doubts as to where the line should be located. In fact, South Carolina at that time laid claim to the entire territory, even though Tryon County, North Carolina had been formed in 1768.[5]

In 1779, Rutherford County was formed from Tryon and Burke Counties, and both John and Daniel appear on the 1782 Tax List of Rutherford County.

John, Daniel and Frank, all appeared in the 1790 U.S. population census of Rutherford County, N.C., along with Carsons, Stocktons and McCurrys, all of whom were known to have lived near the Lattimores in Camden District, District 96, South Carolina and Tryon County, North Carolina.[6]

Records have also been found following their migration to Indiana around 1809-1811, and they were closely intermarried.

One reason for the move to Indiana may have been the issue of slavery. This group was staunch presbyterians and even at that early date, some presbyterian ministers were preaching abolitionism.[7] Examination of the 1790 North Carolina census, shows while John and Francis were slave holders, Daniel was not.

Daniel together with his wife Ann, two sons, four daughters and their families, arrived in Jefferson Indiana Territory in 1811.[8] Jefferson Territory, lying north of the Ohio River, in 1811, was mostly unclaimed lands and considered to be still in hostile Indian Territory.

Daniel returned to North Carolina in 1813 and sold his property there. In September, 1813, Daniel Lattimore of Jefferson Territory, sold to Greenbury Massey of North Carolina, a parcel of land containing 60 acres, for the sum of $300. it was situated on Duncan Creek of First Broad River in Rutherford County, North Carolina.[9]

On 18 April 1814, Daniel purchased 160 acres of land from the U.S. government in Jefferson, Indiana.[10]

It was in the southwest quarter of section 30, township 4, north of range 9 west, in the Republician township of Kent in Jefferson County, Ind.[11]

On this property, Daniel erected a large two story home out of hand made bricks, with walls 18 inches through. The house today (1982), stands on the road between Deputy and Kent, being lived in and is well kept.[12]

Daniel was reported in the 1815 tax list of Jefferson County[13] and also in the 1820 U.S. census.

Daniel died 12 Feb. 1831. Ann, born circa 1755-57, probably in Virginia, died 28 March 1838. They were probably buried in the farm cemetery, which has been abandoned and overgrown with brush.

In Mary Hill's book,"Cemetery Records of Jefferson County, Ind." She describes this cemetery as,"An abandoned graveyard near Wilson's Cave, said to have had a church at one time called Ebenezar Church."[14]

On 4 Dec. 1834, the widow and heirs of Daniel Lattimore were named, and they sold to Zaphaniah Lloyd, land in Jefferson County.[15] The deed was signed by:
Ann Lattimore, widow of Daniel
Amos Chitwood and Prudence, his wife.
Thomas Jones and Jemima, his wife.
John Lattimore and Nancy, his wife.
Abram McCurry and Rhoda, his wife.
Samuel Lattimore and Polly, his wife.(stated as being from Union Co., Ind.)

1-1-6-2 JOHN LATTIMORE

1-1-6-2 John Lattimore, the eldest son of Daniel and his wife, Ann Stockton, was born 1 March 1778, in Tryon County, North Carolina.[20] John married his first wife, Isabella Carson in N.C., circa 1800. Isabella was born 27 July 1782 in Rutherford Co., N.C., and died 16 Feb. 1831 in Jennings Co., Ind.[21] She was the daughter of Walter Carson and Mary.[22]

John was recorded in the 1810 census of Rutherford Co., together with his wife and one daughter; but for some reason his sons were not recorded.

in 1809, John and his brother-in-law, John Carson went to Indiana Territory and staked claims on Graham Creek.[23] He returned to North Carolina and together with his father, Daniel, the Carsons, Mitchell and Grahams, migrated to the Indiana Territory,[24] locating about 20 miles north of his father, in what is now Jennings County. He arrived in Sept. 1811.[25]

In 1816, friendly Indians came to John's home one day and warned him of hostile braves in the area. John immediately took his family and escaped massacre by leaving for the block house in Madison, Indiana, about 20 miles to the north.[26]

On 11 Dec. 1811, John made his first payment to the U.S. Government, relative to purchasing the southwest quarter of section2 in township 5 north of range 8 east; under the vacant lands act, providing sale of lands north of the Ohio River. He received title to these lands after making the last payment on 15 Feb. 1817.[27]

On 18 Nov. 1829, John and his wife, Isabella, sold part of this tract of land to Thomas Berry. The signing of the deed was witnessed by his son, John O. Lattimore.[28]

John was a religious man. A log church near the homes of John Lattimore and Walter Carson was built at almost the location of the present day Graham Church. On 10 Aug. 1817, the first session meeting of the church on Graham Creek was held.[29] Among the charter members were, John Lattimore and family, Walter Carson and family, James Mitchel and wife, and Thomas Graham and family. John Lattimore and

Thomas Graham were the first elders of the church, and John remained an elder until his death.[30]

In all, 17 persons came forward and a church under the ministrations of Nathan Derrow,V.D., missionary from Connecticut, was planted on Graham Fork, in Jennings County.

in 1832, the church was divided. The members that lived south of Bear Creek were constituted a new church at Paris Crossing. All that lived north of Bear Creek, remained members of Graham. This mother church consisted of 35 members and the name Graham Presbyterian Church was established.[31]

On 10 April 1832, after the death of Isabella, John married his second wife, Nancy Stites, who was born in 1798 in Kentucky.[32]

John died 11 Sept. 1859, and his will was probated 5 Oct. 1859.[33] He is buried at the side of Isabella in the Graham Church cemetery.[34]

1-1-6-2-14 Martha M.

1-1-6-2-2 Daniel Lattimore, son of John and Isabella was born 21 Feb. 1804, in Rutherford Co., N.C. He was a child of about 7 years of age, when his family migrated to the Indiana Territory.

On 27 Dec. 1823, Daniel was married to Damsel McGannon[35] she was born in 1800, in Gallatin Co., Ky. She died 20 Aug. 1826, in Jennings Co., Ind.[36] To this union was born one son, John McGannon Lattimore.

Damsel was a sister to Jane McGannon, who married Walter C. Lattimore, brother to Daniel. The girls were the daughters of Darby McGannon and Sallie Cogwell.[37]

After the death of Damsel, Daniel married Martha Pryor, who was born in 1803, in Kentucky, and died in 1877, in Washington, D.C., but is buried in Vernon, Jennings Co., Ind.

On 1 Jan. 1827, Rev. John Finley Crowe, opened a school for boys in a small log house on his premises near Madison, Ind. Daniel and his brother Samuel, were among the first six students enrolled. This small school was the beginning of Hanover College.[38]

Daniel was living on a farm and paid for his living and education by manual labor. He was a giant in stature and had a splendid mind.[39]

He taught Latin and Greek and ministered to the Vernon and Graham Presbyterian Churches for twenty years. He also served on the Board of Trustees of Hanover Presbyterian College form 1836 to 1856.[40]

Daniel died in Jennings County, Ind. 7 Mar. 1857.[41]

Child of Daniel and Damsel

1-1-6-2-2-1 John McGannon Lattimore, born Jennings Co., Ind., Mar. 1826. He is mentioned as a child in his grandfather, Darby McGannon's will, dated 26 Dec. 1829.[42]

John M. attended Hanover College and was suspended for a time in 1844. His father wrote a letter to Rev. Crowe, regarding the suspension; which is quite interesting, in that ordinarily the son of a Trustee is not suspended from school.[43]

In the summer and fall of 1847, the Fifth Indiana Regiment was formed to fight in the Mexican-American War. John M. was a Lieutenant in that regiment, under the command of Captain Horace Hall. Although the regiment was never in battle, one day it came so close to Santa Anna, that in his hurry to get away, he left behind his wooden leg. It became a trophy of war, and was highly prized by the Hoosier soldiers.[44]

John was promoted to Captian and shortly subsequent to the capture of the City of Mexico, he fell sick and died a few days after reaching home.[45]

John remained unmarried, and died 8 Jan. 1849. He is buried near his mother, in a cemetery on the old Darby McGannon farm, now owned by Roger Spaulding, in Jennings Co., Ind.

Children of Daniel and Martha

1-1-6-2-2-2 Isabella C. Lattimore, born 1831, Jennings Co., Ind., married 2 May 1854, William Sharp.

1-1-6-2-2-3 Alexander W. Lattimore, born 1831, Jenn- Co., Ind., married 25 Oct. 1857, Jennings Co., Catherine M. Todd, born 1836, Ind.

Alexander was an attorney and notary public. In 1858, he was Jennings County prosecuting attorney.

1-1-6-2-2-3-1 Isabella Lattimore, born Jennings Co., Ind., died Washington, D.C.

1-1-6-2-2-3-2 Mary Lattimore, Presbyterian Missionary, died Soochow, China.

1-1-6-2-2-3-3-2 Owen Lattimore, born 29 July 1900, Washington D.C., married Eleanor Holgate, born 1895.

Owen was raised in China, and after attending schools in Switzerland and England, he returned to China in 1919. Interested in the frontier regions, he visited Sinkiang and Mongolia in 1926-27, then lived in Peking, but traveled extensively. In 1938, he was appointed director of the Page School of International Relations at John Hopkins University. During World War II, he was political adviser to Chiang Kai-shek (1941-1942), and served in the U.S. Office of War Information.

In 1950, Owen answered Senator Joseph McCarthy's unsubstantiated charges that he was a Soviet Agent and was cleared of the charge by a Senate Investigating Subcommittee. His "Ordeal by Slander" was published that year. From 1950, he worked for the United Nations in Afghanistan, lectured in Europe, and traveled in Central Asia. He taught at Leeds University, England from 1963 until his retirement in 1969.

An authority on Mongolia, Manchuria and Sinkiang, Owen wrote numerous works on these areas. He edited the quarterly, Pacific Affairs from 1933 to 1941.[46]

1-1-6-2-2-4 Finley A. Lattimore, born 1836, Jennings Co., Ind.

Finley was a physician and surgeon, practiced in Vernon, Jennings Co., Ind. He served as a surgeon in the Civil War.

1-1-6-2-2-5 Mary A. Lattimore, married L.D. Stonecypher. 5 Sept. 1850.
1-1-6-2-2-6 Walter O. Lattimore, born 1843, Jennings Co., Ind., married 26 Mar. 1873, Ella West.

Walter volunteered for service in the Civil War in 1861, and was a First Lt. in the Union Army.

Growing up and living in the Manse at Vernon, and never being away from home influences before; he gave way to temptation and became a slave to evil habits.

After resigning from the army in 1870, he struggled desperately for six years with liquor. He finally won the battle and became an Evangelist.[48]

In 1881, Walter visited the Graham Presbyterian Church, and was such an eloquent speaker, people came miles through mud and rain to hear him preach. He made the largest conversion in the history of the church.[49]

1-1-6-2-2-7 Daniel E. Lattimore, born 1846, Jennings Co., Ind., married 19 Mar. 1867, Emma J. Storey.

1-1-6-2-3 Walter C. Lattimore, born 30 August 1807[50] in Rutherford Co., N.C., the third known child of John and Isabella. Walter was around four years old when his family migrated to Indiana.

It appears, Walter did not take advantage of the education his brothers received, as his legal documents are signed with his mark.[51] Nor does it appear he was as religious as his father or brothers, Daniel and Samuel, who became ministers; as his name does not actively appear in the church records.

It seems he preferred to be a farmer, and remained a farmer all his life.

On 3 October 1827. Walter C. Lattimore and Jane McGannon were married in Jennings Co., Ind.[52] Jane was born 25 March 1807 in Gallitan Co., Ky., and died 25 June 1865 in Jennings Co., Ind.[53] Jane was the daughter of Darby McGannon and Sallie Cogwell[54]

On 3 Jan. 1837, Walter and Jane sold to William Clarkston, a parcel of land, consisting of the south west quarter of section 36, township 6, north of range 8 east, for the sum of $300.[55] For some reason, Walter took this land back, for he willed it to his unmarried children at the time of his death; along with 17 acres of other property.[56]

Walter died 20 March 1870,[57] and is buried with his wife in the Graham Church cemetery. His will is dated 5 Jan. 1870 and all of his children were mentioned.

1-1-6-2-3-1 Darby McGannon Lattimore, the eldest child of Walter C. Lattimore and Jane McGannon, was born 3 August 1828 in Jennings Co., Ind.

Darby was mentioned as an infant son of Walter C. and Jane, in his grandfather Darby McGannon's will, dated 21 Dec. 1829.[58]

On 20 Dec. 1849, Darby married Mary Ann Lawrence, born 16 Sept. 1834, in Indiana,[59] daughter of John Lawrence and Ruth Jane Hutchinson.

Darby was a farmer in Jennings Co. Around 1861, the family moved to Mt. Erie, Ill., but returned to Jennings County, circa 1869.

No death records for Darby or Mary Ann have been found; but apparently Darby died between 1880 and 1884, and Mary Ann after 1884.[60]

1-1-6-2-3-1-1 Ruth Jane Lattimore, born 18 Nov. 1851, Jennings Co., Ind., married 5 Sept. 1871, Millard F. Thomas.

Around 1885, after the death of his first wife, James (Jim), and his brother-in-law, Charlie McDonald, boarded a train in Ind. Jim arrived in Larned, Ks. with a gun, $28.00, and a suitcase.

After leaving Larned, they started walking south. Along the way, they met a homesteader, Ben Fuqua and spent the night with him. The next day, Ben took them out to hunt prairie chickens, they walked over land that Jim was later to homestead.

Jim stayed in the area and built a dugout on the old Curtis place near Byers, Ks. He was living in the dugout when he and leona were married. They remained living in the dugout until around 1892-93, then moved across the road onto a timber claim, in a house that Jim had built.

On 17 Dec. 1903, Jim homesteaded the south half of the north east quarter of section three, township 26, south of range 14, west of the 6th principal meridan in Kansas (Pratt County.), containing 171.92 acres.[63]

Jim built a house on the homestead, and they remained there until their youngest daughter, Mertie, reached high school age. They then built a home in the town of Byers, Ks. and lived there until Leona's death in 1939.[64]

1-1-6-2-3-1-3-1 Vinnie Mae Lattimore, born 6 Sept. 1887, Pratt Co., Ks., died 13 Aug. 1954, Larned, Ks., married 29 July 1905, Pratt Co., Ks., William T. Hensley, born 10 Aug. 1880, Rock Castle, Ky., died 31 May 1964, son of Samuel Hensley and Martha Collier.

1-1-6-2-4-7 John Lattimore, born 26 May 1849, Jennings Co., Ind., died 14 July 1849, Jennings Co., Ind.

1-1-6-2-5 Samuel Stockton Lattimore, born 11 Mar. 1811 in Rutherford Co., N.C., was an infant when brought by his parents to Indiana Territory. He grew to adulthood in Jennings Co., Indiana, and together with his brother, Daniel, was one of the first six students of Hanover College when Rev John Finley Crowe started that institution on 1 January 1827, in Jefferson County, Indiana.

Samuel left Hanover in the fall of 1833, at the end of his junior year, under a cloud. Although he was a brilliant man, his views on the subject of religion became unsettled and he left college and went south, where he engaged in teaching.[65]

Samuel went to Vicksburg, Mississippi, and soon on to Clinton. In 1834, he was baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist Church by Elder Jesse Andrews, and the same year married Frances Compere, the daughter of Rev. Lee Compere and Susannah Voysey.

In 1835, Samuel was ordained to the Baptist minsstry by Elders Elish Battle and Lee Compere.[66] In the same year, he established a manual labor school under the control of the Baptist denomination. The school was originally located at Society Ridge in Hinds County. Samuel taught at the school, preached at Middleton in Carroll County, and was president of the literary and theological institute.

In 1845, Samuel was employed as General Agent of the Mississippi Baptist State Convention, which position he held for two years. In 1847, he was pastor of the Aberdeen and Macon churches.

In 1857, Samuel and Frances purchased a home in Aberdeen, about two blocks south of the First Baptist Church.[67]

Samuel was a man of marked abilities, warm and generous affections, and an eloquent preacher, an able controversial speaker and writer and an eminently suscessful minister of the gospel.[68]

Being a man of real merit and superior talent, he was along with J.R. Graves, the recognized champion of the Baptist in religious debates, which were so popular in his day. Many of his admirers would travel 30 or 40 miles on horseback through muddy roads to hear him preach. With manly appearance, tall and erect form, broad forehead and fluffy hair bordering on the golden hue, he was an ideal senatorial statesman, with dignity; and because of his various controversies on the principles and practices of the Baptist, he endured no little persecution. It appears he was generous to a fault and following his death, his family was left in "straitened" circumstances.[69]

Samuel died in Aberdeen, Miss., 17 Oct. 1857. Frances and her family remained in Aberdeen until the middle of 1860. They then moved to Clark County, Miss., probably to be near son John, who was teaching at Enterprise, for a brief time before entering the Civil War.

1-1-6-2-5-1 John Lee Lattimore, born 1835, Miss., died 1887, Fla., married Sarah Catherine Shivers, born 1 Jan. 1841, Marrings Co., Ala., daughter of Offa Lumford Shivers and Catherine Woodfin.

John was a Baptist minister and served as chaplain during the Civil War. He was president of Moulton Female Institute in Moulton, Ala. for five years, before moving to Falls Co., Tx. John Lee died in Fla, while in quest of health.[70]

Notes
Lattimore Family

1. The emigrants, Samuel, Daniel and John were referred to in a letter written by Daniel Dobbins Lattimore, to his daughter, Susan, in the mid-1800's.

2. There was a John Lateman and a Daniel Latemor in New London District, Chester Co., Pa. tax lists in 1730.
Other Lattimores in Colonial days have been researched, and no connection can be found. On the 1721 tax list in Chowan Co., N.C., there appears a William Lattimore, and a Samuel Lattimore is reported in the 1790 Chowan Co., N.C. U.S. population census; but no relationship has been established.

3. The probable date of marriage was estimated from marriage records of Mary and Charity Lattimore and reference to the Lattimore family in the Va. Gen. Mag. Vol 23-2 & Vol. 23-4.

4. 12 July 1734 - Deed Book B. pages 328-329, Hamilton Parish, Prince William County, Va.

5. 13 Aug. 1740 - Deed Book (3) E. pages 63-64 & 66-67, John Lattimore sold to John Lattimore, Jr., a 50 acre tract of land he had purchased from Thomas Furr in Prince William Co., Va. The purchase price was 2,000 pounds of tobacco. The 50 acres was bounded along William Furr's line, thence along Thomas Furr's line; thence along the outline John Lattimore, Sr. had purchased from Thomas Furr.
In Cummins family history, "Cummins Ancient, Cummins New", it is stated, Howson Kenner purchased 200 acres of land in Prince William Co. from John Lattimore and his son, John. No date of purchase is given, but the property purchased is referred to in Mr. Kenner's will dated 1778.

6. 11 Oct. 1749, Deed Book H-P, pages 51-53, Hamilton Parish, Prince William Co., Va. This deed was witnessed by Louis Pritchett, among others.
From 1744 until 1769, the parish of Hamilton consisted of the territory of what is now Fauquier, plus the upper end of Prince William Co. Prior to 1752, there are few surviving county records, while the Hamilton Vestry Book is gone altogether, destroyed a leaf at a time as one eats an artichoke, in the Fauquier

7. Vir. Gen. Mag. Vol. 23 #4. Oct., Nov., Dec., 1979. Appearing as witnesses for the children were, John Jennings, Edmond Jennings, Thomas Harris, and Catherine Jennings. The children were ordered to pay costs, including 50 lbs. of tobacco to each witness.
11 May 1761, elections were held for the House of Burgess. Running for election were, Col. John Bayles, Col. Henry Lee, Col. Henry Peyton, and Mr. Landon Carter, Sr. John Lattimore voted for John Bayles and Henry Lee. It is not known if this voter was John Sr. or Jr., but is presumed to be Sr.

60. Darby and Mary Ann appear in the 1880 Jennings Co. census. In the Jennings Co., 1884 Atlas, Mary A. Lattimore is listed as owning 39 acres of land in Lovett Township. If the property was then listed in Mary's name, it is safe to assume Darby had died by 1884. The 1890 census is not available, and Mary is not listed in the 1900 census; so she probably died between 1884-1900.
